

Jo Essen's #MyBirminghamStory

Dear Birmingham

A city that is forever changing

The motto is forward

Symbolising grafters and artists

Yet you seem to let go of what really matters

Holding onto the bull ring

Developing transporting

Gentrifying

Independent markets, Traders And Businesses build the city.

As long as they pay their way

We've had the common wealth

Which is in the past now

What legacy is left of it?

Let's look forward and change the present

Fund what's in your heart <3
